

Usage Guidelines

Univision, UniMás, Galavision and their related networks, including but not limited to El Rey, Fusion, Univision tlnovelas, TUDN, FOROtv, De Película, De Película Clásico, Bandamax, Telehit and Telehit Urbano (collectively, “Univision”) recognize that their network names and logos, program titles, slogans, and other trademarks and service marks, whether owned by or licensed to them (collectively, the “Marks”), and images, photos, clips, videos, audios, text, and other content and material derived from or associated with their programming whether owned by or licensed to them (collectively, the “Materials”), provide an exciting way for Univision’s affiliates, advertisers and business partners, including their authorized employees, agents and representatives (collectively “Users” and individually, a “User”) to advertise Univision programming. All Marks and Materials are extremely valuable to Univision. Univision has created these guidelines to protect and ensure proper use of the Marks and Materials by Users in audio, visual or audio visual materials distributed by means of television, radio, print, online, wireless, mobile, or any other media now known or hereafter devised (collectively “User Creatives”).

NOTE: All Marks and Materials are the property of Univision, its affiliates or licensors. Accordingly, all Marks and Materials must be used for the promotion and benefit of Univision, its corporate affiliates and their licensors ONLY and subject to the prior approval of Univision in each instance.

All User Creatives must comply with the following:

1. Approvals:

All User Creatives must be sent to Univision for approval at least five (5) business days prior to desired use, exhibition and distribution to the public. Please send User Creatives to: Elizabeth Asencio, Senior Vice President, Head of Distribution Marketing at [easencio@univision.net](mailto: easencio@univision.net). Once User Creatives are completed, all physical and electronic copies of the Marks and Materials used in such creatives must be permanently destroyed and deleted from Users’ systems.

2. Authorized Use of Marks and Materials:

Unless otherwise approved in writing by Univision, Users must use the exact Marks and/or Materials as set forth on distribution.univision.net (“Site”) as of the date of use in the User Creatives. All Marks and Materials may only be used as part of and in conjunction with approved User Creatives, and may not be used or exploited on a standalone basis in any form or manner without the express prior written authorization of Univision. Users may not alter, cover or otherwise obstruct the Marks and/or Materials used, including, without limitation, by means of an on screen graphic or otherwise.

All Marks and Materials must be used in a truthful, non-misleading manner. No use of any of the Marks or Materials may falsely suggest affiliation, association, sponsorship, approval or endorsement of any User or third-party product or service, with or by Univision, its corporate affiliates or licensors. The “News & Trends” portion of the Site contains published third-party news and editorial materials that are provided for information purposes only. Univision does NOT authorize Users to copy, reproduce, republish or distribute such third-party news and editorial materials. Users must contact the third-party publishers for permission to do so. Any unauthorized copying, reproduction, republication or distribution of such materials is entirely and solely at Users’ own risk.

3. Trademark Notices:

Users agree to not alter the trademark designation, if any, in the Marks.

In addition, a trademark ownership notice in the following form (as updated from time to time by Univision) must be included in all User Creatives (other than online banners, buttons or status updates) that contain any of the Marks (whether registered or unregistered):

- Spanish: “Los títulos y logotipos de [INSERT MARKS e.g., títulos de programas, Univision/ TeleFutura/ Galavisión] son marcas de Univision Communications Inc., sus compañías afiliadas o sus licenciarios.”
- English: “The titles and logos of [INSERT MARKS e.g., Any Program Titles, Univision/ TeleFutura/Galavisión] are the marks of Univision Communications Inc., its affiliates or licensors.”

4. Copyright Notices:

The following copyright notices (as updated from time to time by Univision) must be included in all User Creatives (other than online banners, buttons or status updates) that contain any of the Materials:

- Spanish: “Todas las fotos, imagenes, videos, audios y texto de [agrega el nombre del programa] son reproducidas con el permiso de Univision Communications Inc. Copyright ©2012 Univision Communications Inc., sus compañías afiliadas o sus licenciarios. Derechos reservados.”
- English: “All [insert program title] photos, images, videos, audios and text are reproduced with permission of Univision Communications Inc. Copyright ©2012 Univision Communications Inc., its affiliates or licensors. All rights reserved.”

5. Music Clearance:

Users are solely responsible for obtaining any and all necessary music clearances, including, without limitation, synchronization and performance rights, from the copyright proprietors of such music and such other persons or entities as may own or control rights thereto to the extent any music is included in any of the Materials exhibited in User Creatives other than the music contained in Univision taggable spots as described below.

6. Univision Taggable Spots:

Univision may produce spots that are available for Users to “tag” with User branding (“Univision Taggable Spots”). Users may not modify, alter or otherwise edit the Univision Taggable Spots other than to add User branding during designated end tag of the Univision Taggable Spots. Univision Taggable Spots may only be used for the period of time specified in the detail page of the applicable Univision Taggable Spots. All Univision Taggable Spots must be reviewed and approved pursuant to Section 1 above.
